Numb. 6933.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 7. to Tuesday November 10. 1730.

Paris, November 11, N. S.

YEsterday being the Anniversary of the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, his Excellency the Earl of Waldegrave, His Majesty's Ambassadour at this Court, gave a magnificent Entertainment to a great Number of English on that joyful Occasion.

Hague, Nov. 14, N. S. The 10th being the Anniversary of the King of Great Britain's Birth-Day, his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, His Majesty's Ambassadour here, gave a magnificent Entertainment to all the publick Ministers, and many other Persons of Distinction: The Prince of Nassau-Friseland, who arrived here the Night before, was present at the Feast, with the chief of his Retinue. A Treaty of Peace has been agreed upon with Admiral Perez, between the States General and the Emperor of Morocco; and the Dutch Slaves in Morocco, who are 32 in Number, are to be redeemed at the Price of 300 Crowns each. Yesterday came Advice by the Way of Vienna, of an Insurrection of the Janizaries at Constantinople, who after having caused the Grand Visier, the Captain Bashaw or Admiral, and others of the principal Officers of that Court to be put to Death, deposed the Grand Signior Achmet, and placed on the Throne his Nephew Machmut, Son of the former Sultan Mustapha. Captain Schryver has made his Report to the States of his Proceedings in relation to the two East India Ships taken and released some Months ago by the Algerines, and their High Mightinesses have approved his Conduct. At the same Time he delivered the Present sent by the Dey to the States, being two Horses and a very rich Saddle. The Marquess de Fenelon is soon expected, to reside here in the Room of M. de la Baune, as Ambassadour from the Court of France, the States Passport for his Equipage and Baggage having been transmitted to him some Days ago. We are expecting daily the two Ambassadours of this State who are returning from Paris, a Yacht having been sent to receive them at Ghent.

St. James's, November 7.

This Day M. de Thom, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Brunswick Lunenburg Wolfembuttel, had his first private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, Nov. 7, 1730.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lady Diana Feilding, did, on the 29th Day of October last past, receive a Letter by the Penny Post, signed Tho. of the West, threatning to destroy her Ladyship's Park, and make such a Bonfire therein as has not been seen before; For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in sending the Threats aforesaid, His Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall discover the Author or Authors of the Letter above-mentioned, or any one concerned therein, to be paid upon Conviction of the Person or Persons so concerned.

Di. Feilding.

And whereas I am equally concerned in the Consequences of the detestable Threatnings contained in the above-mentioned Letter, I do therefore, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Author or Authors of the same, promise the Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by me upon Conviction as aforesaid.

Dudley and Ward.

Windsor Castle, Oct. 12, 1730.

Whereas in the Month of September last several Letters were sent to Mr. George Packer, of the City of Bristol, Merchant, and one to his Sisters who lived in his House, requiring that a certain Sum of Money should be left in particular Places described in the said Letters, threatning, if the same were not complied with, to murther them, and to burn his House, and accordingly on Saturday the 3d of October Instant, about Twelve of the Clock at Night, his said House was set on Fire, and entirely consumed, whereby the Ships at the Key and the whole City were in great Danger of being also set on Fire; and since the burning of the said House, two Letters have been conveyed to the said Mr. Packer, threatning, if he did not leave a larger Sum of Money at a Place appointed, to murther him and his Sisters, to burn every House he should live in, and that the City before it were long, should be all in Flames: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in a Crime of so high a Nature, and attended with so much Barbarity and Villany, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person, or to any other Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, payable upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Bristol, October 19, 1730.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, do hereby promise, That whoever shall discover the Person or Persons who sent, or contrived or directed the sending the said Letters, or any of them, or was or were